*The End
of the Eighties*

PERTY OF:
WRHS ALUMNI ASSN.

CLASS
1989

Note From the Editor: The theme of this year's yearbook was decided upon after much deliberation. When we asked ourselves what was special or different about this year's graduating class, we decided to capitalize upon the fact that there were no cliques or other distinguishing factors about this class. Everyone was special and instead of just saying The Class of 1989, we decided to be different and to say The Unclass. of 1989,

WEST RUTLAND HIGH SCHOOL

317 MAIN STREET

WEST RUTLAND, VERMONT 05777

P. O. BOX NO. 98

It is my privilege to formally recognize, in this brief message, 35 graduating seniors of the class of 1989 at West Rutland High School. I have been impressed, during this past year, with the wide variety of talents that this group possesses. We have a blend of outstanding academic talent with specific talents shining through in all areas of the academic program.

The factor that I am most proud of when I analyze the potential of this group is the fact that many of them represent the ideal description of a well rounded student. We have students that have not only participated in athletics but also, band, chorus, one-act plays, clubs and, in some cases, community related civic activities. The potential for this class to become contributing citizens of our society is extremely high. They, as a group, have accepted responsibility and have turned minor crises into positive learning experiences. It is my pleasure to extend my best wishes to this group of 35 students as they use the foundation that they have gained while attending the West Rutland School System to advance and accept the responsibilities of attending colleges, military services, industry and becoming family members.

The Co-President's Message

Jim and I are honored to be this years presidents. When we started the year, we did not know how things would work out, but we soon found out! (or did Priscilla?) Anyways, we both felt that this was a very important position, especially because this was our Senior year. We wanted everything to be perfect. We have shared many good times and bad times together, failed tests and won games together, and cried together. We'll both miss you all, but we wish you the best of luck in the future.

Love always,
Jim

The Unforgotten Friend

Dear Friends at Westside,

I feel really honored to be able to put this letter in the yearbook.

I would, first of all, like to thank all the friends I have at Westside and especially, my old senior class. I made alot of great friendships during my six years there and I'm sorry I can't graduate with West Rutland's 1989 graduating class. I have also met new friends here and am not regretting the change but I hope the friendships I made at Westside will last forever.

I would also like to thank the teachers I had at West Rutland. I've heard before that the teaching staff in private schools is supposed to be better than that of public schools', but in this case I would have to say the opposite. The teaching staff at West Rutland is great and I know they did alot for me. Especially Mr. Remington and Mr. Loomis. They were good friends as well as good teachers. (Mr. Loomis is a better physics teacher than the one I had this year!)

Again, thanks for all the memories guys, and I would like to wish the bet of luck to the class of 1989 in all the different ways that they go.
GOOD LUCK GUYS!!!!

Stephen Meigs

The Class Prophecy: The Un-Reunion.

In remembrance of their "Senior Skip Day", in the year 1999, the class of "89" has decided to have their 10th year reunion up at the pit on Good Friday.

Matt, Mark Jankowski, and Jim would've been the first to arrive. Unfortunately, they were doing some "four wheeling" up on Hanley Mountain with their '99 jeeps. Dan would've been the next one there, but he decided not to take anymore chances on those cliffs. He couldn't afford another tow truck. Joe Teer and Stacy Sturtevant couldn't make it because they have just invested in the ownership of Middletown Springs and had to help the cows cross the four corners. Jason and Tim would have been there also, but they are living in Hollywood and couldn't take the time off from work to come up. Jason is a Chip-N-Dale dancer and Tim is a comedian. And Leo Brusco couldn't make it either. He's shopping for a new pair of underwear for his opening "Male Stripper" show.

Laurie Sutkowski and Jen Philips have given up men and have joined the convent. They could not make it because they had to attend church all day since it was Good Friday. Davidde Mylotte was unable to attend because he has just become manager of McDonalds and has to stay there to supervise the flipping of the hamburgers. And Harris Kelley is now a famous math teacher, adored by his students. Being the dedicated person that he is, he had to stay home and work on some algebraic equations.

The pit was not equipped with a landing strip for Dave Wright's jet. Therefore, he refused to attend. Mark Trepanier had his hair teased, and didn't want to take any chances of having the wind mess it up. Carl "The Weedman" Wedin was lost in the weeds. He had to attend his 20th annual Turkey Calling contest, so he too was not there. Shannon Comstock would have been there, but since she has moved to Florida, she refuses to come back to Vermont. Kyle has taken off on his new Harley and joined the Hells Angels, and cannot be found. And Tammy Matteson's car was once again not working, so she had no way to get up there.

Sophie Bania is now a professor at Harvard University and had to give lectures that day, so she could not go either. Jody Caliguri, however, did show up. But because he's often moderately late and nobody was there, he just figured it was already over, and he left.

Kelly Flory was home, slaving over the stove, cooking lasagna to bring to Mr. Deuel for his lunch hour. Kelly Moyer and Karen had to stay home and wash their uniforms for their All-star basketball game. Naomi had planned on attending. However she forgot where the reunion was going to be held. Scott Simon could not make it because he was in France working on a French novel. Bill Czarnecki went fishing three days ago and is still trying to get the minnow he caught off the end of this fishing pole. Brenda has moved to Brazil and is working on her latest masterpiece. And Bill Fowler has become the president of the IBM Corporation and is hard at work on a new computer program.

Mary Coombs and Kathy Goodrich were not there because they too went "four wheeling" on Hanley Mountain. They went in Mary's car and got stuck. Priscilla has opened her own Grand Union grocery store in Florida and can't take the time off to come up to Vermont. Russell Doty has become an electrician and he had to go to a job site to work on some malfunctioning wires. However, the pit was not totally deserted. Peter Tyminski was there, on the scene in his brand new Peterbuilt dumptruck full of pallets for the fire. When he saw there was no one there, he left the pallets and figured it must be the next night he's supposed to be there.

Under Our Hats- The Underclassmen!

There once was a pep-rally at WRHS and much to this staffers' surprise, a small coincidence has lead to a giant rumor that has swept across campus. The pictures below illustrate how the rumor started, and as we all know, pictures don't lie.

Everywhere people stop to listen.

On the facing page, the rumor spreads like wildfire.

She loves me this much.

"There's something about a cheerleader with a crewcut!"

"I don't see what he has that I don't, do you?"

The evil eye of disbelief is everywhere.

"No comment, no comment."

Did reporting on the rumor put a smile on this girl's face?

"I suspected as much."

Hmm ... another crewcut. This could have possibilities.

The Juniors Have Class

Watch out for the thrash.

This years junior class is now looking forward to their senior year. And they have only one message for the rest of the school ... WATCH OUT! Their class has worked hard over the years and have saved plenty of money. And as anyone can tell you, the last year of high school is the best.

What? Chemistry? Very puzzling ...

WHAT? That can't be right!

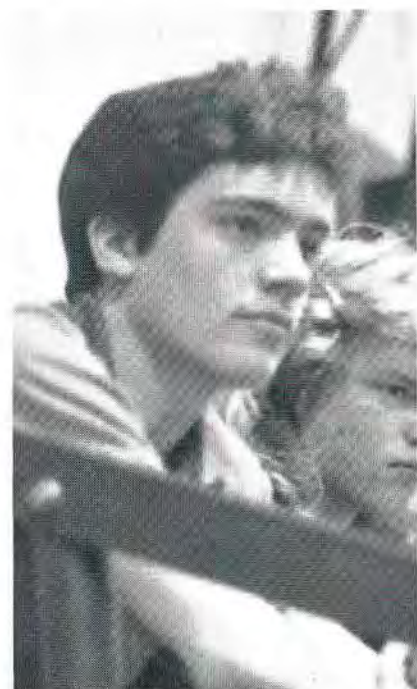

Jack, you are way too cool. Especially in February!

All right, yesterday we were talking about ...

Our local photographer caught this girl, outside West Rutland High, can you believe it ... EATING ICE CREAM!!!

Hmm ... I wonder why the chicken really crossed the road???

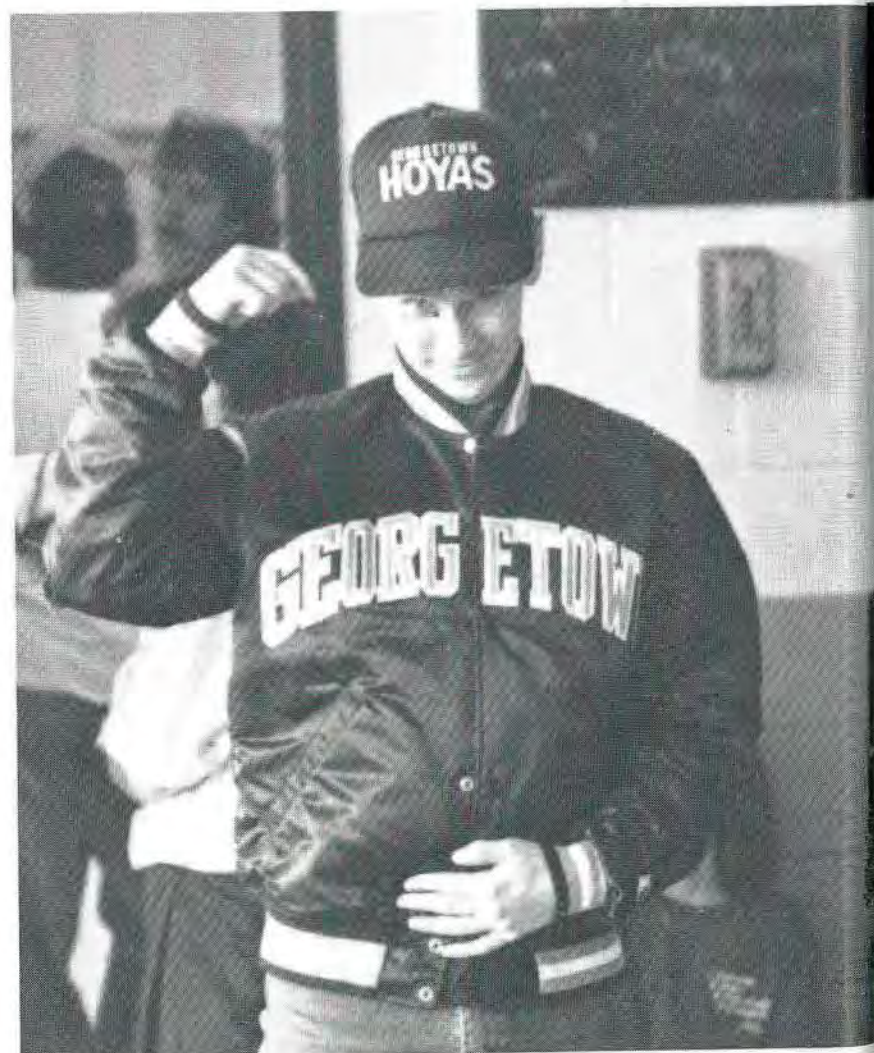

Here are 32 people. Made peers by fate, but friends by choice.

What ... Amy, not talking???

They'd never believe it if we told 'em!

Georgetown Hoyas are the best, right, Matt? Too bad they lost in the quarter finals!!

An Unbelievable Year Of Unforgettable Fun!!

The 1989 Sophomore Class

Oh I know it!!

Julie Simon: Our 1989 Ambassador at the HOBY Leadership Seminars.

Sophomore Survey
The majority of our class thinks that the Georgetown Hoyas should have won the NCAA Basketball Tournament. Christy Wozniak doesn't think anyone should have won, at least that's what it said on her survey!! Forty percent of the class likes chocolate ice cream best.

Jimmy Razanouski prefers cherry! Stacey Fales owns the most pairs of blue-jeans in the whole class: 12!! I'll bet she never has to do laundry!! It was a very close race between Beatle Bailey and Larry Mace, for who has the most smelliest sneakers. Sara Trepanier's vote was the tie breaker and Larry won by 1 sniff! Way to go, Larry! Pepsi beats Coke 3-1 in popularity (But Bill Wetherby, of course, always trying to be a pain, decided that he likes Mountain Dew better than Pepsi or Coke!!) When asked what their favorite saying was, there were a variety of answers. Cheri Saltis often finds herself saying "I didn't do it!", while Kevin Callahan likes to "Go nuts!"

All in all we've had an interesting and productive year! We all look forward to being Juniors next year!

This is America's future . . .

Look out Red Sox!! Here comes Sevigny!!
Wha'cha doin', Johanna?

The Freshmen Class

A brief glance at some undeniably incredible kids.

Where's my teddy bear?

The king and queen of the freshman reception, and their court!!!

Come on guys! Duck, duck, goose is for little kids!!

"Un-Ordinary"

Once upon a time in West Rutland's World Famous High School, yearbook cameras were sent out to get the craziest pictures that they could find. Needless to say, as the following pictures show, they accomplished their mission. (When these photos are released, I guarantee that most girls will go mad, the guys will be astonished, and the whole town will be in an uproar!!) HERE THEY ARE — (don't say I didn't warn you.)

WHAT?? Is this girl trying to STUDY???

We captured this on film at the exact moment---She was totally unprepared for the shot---couldn't tell, could you??

This masterpiece captures all the underclassmen's feelings, It IS true that freshmen don't have any class!

Here they were walking, and these two didn't even notice the camera!

These two GQ promoters are 100% tan-free.

Scary, Isn't it? Jason thought he could swallow the camera.

We weren't sure if these, "ladies" have heard about hair removal or not-(we didn't ask).

The photographer that took this shot had never seen so many people dressed in white, all in one place.

Some how, I think that this girl knew something was up.

These two tough volleyball competitors really had a great view of the game.

The cameras caught this group on their way in the building, after a tough lunchtime --- All in all, I think our photographers caught alot of great shots, too bad they didn't get the notorious 3 Amigos.

The People Behind The Scenes Of The 1989 Yearbook.

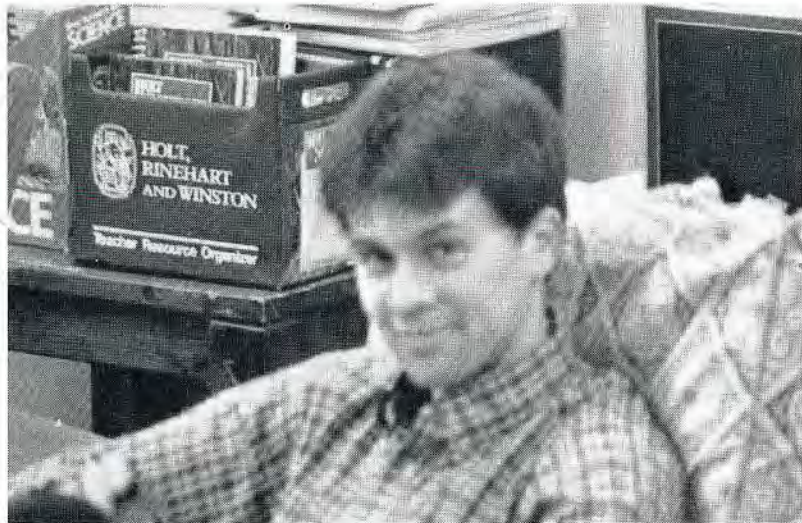

"Here is the man you've all seen peeking into your affairs and taking nasty little photos when your hair is a mess. It's Mr. Simon, the yearbook photographer."

This year's yearbook staff consisting of one editor and three layout graphic design artists.

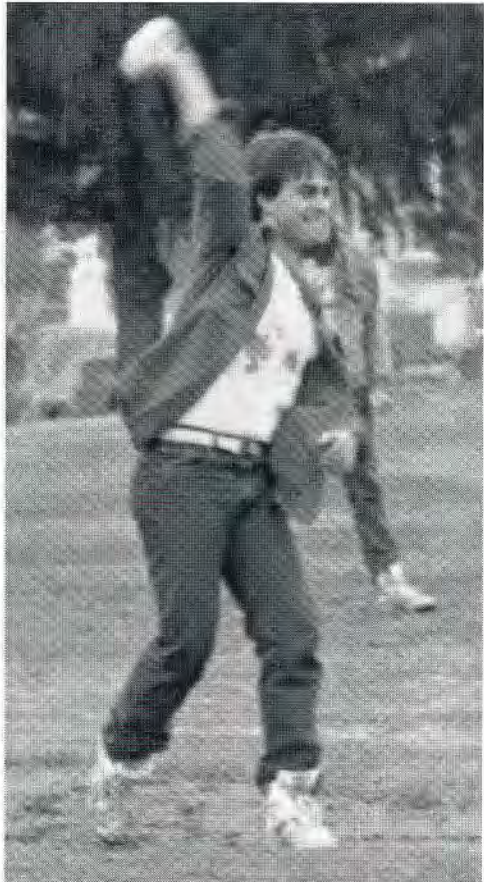

"Karen, are you lost? What's that? No, Mr. Kelly is not in here. We haven't been able to find him for the past five years. And HE gets paid to be OUR advisor! Imagine that."

"Ah, there you are, Michael J. Hiding out from us, are you?" Yes, folks, this is our un-ectomorphic Advisor.

These guys above are really weird. Come on, please tell me this is a joke. Tim?

These magnificent people are displaying the many faces of West Rutland High school, in all it's glory.

What's that? A picture of a bottle of the Un-Cola? Oh, thank goodness, it's a bottle of the Real Cola, Mountain Dew!

Our massive WRHS high school band members.

Pucker up honey!
Here are the sing-songy chorus members.

Singing for their supper.

Do they really know how to read music?

Oh no we played the wrong song!

Yes, Scott You are out of place but you play a mean flute solo.

The National Honor Society: "An Unerring Year."

These photos depict the induction of new members into the Society. A very formal affair . . .

And this is our unbelievable, unfearing leader.

These are all of this year's Society, new members and the veterans. Jody didn't want his picture taken, so he's hiding.

These are the formal proceedings, where we unmistakably made fools of ourselves.

And here are the veterans in all their prowess. Jody's thrilled.

Project Hope

Here we all are, at the Ritero Park of Madrid. We were only three days into the trip at this point, and so far a certain someone had managed to lose her passport at least ten times, call home about five times, and speak about twelve Spanish words, but not at the same time. PACA!!!!

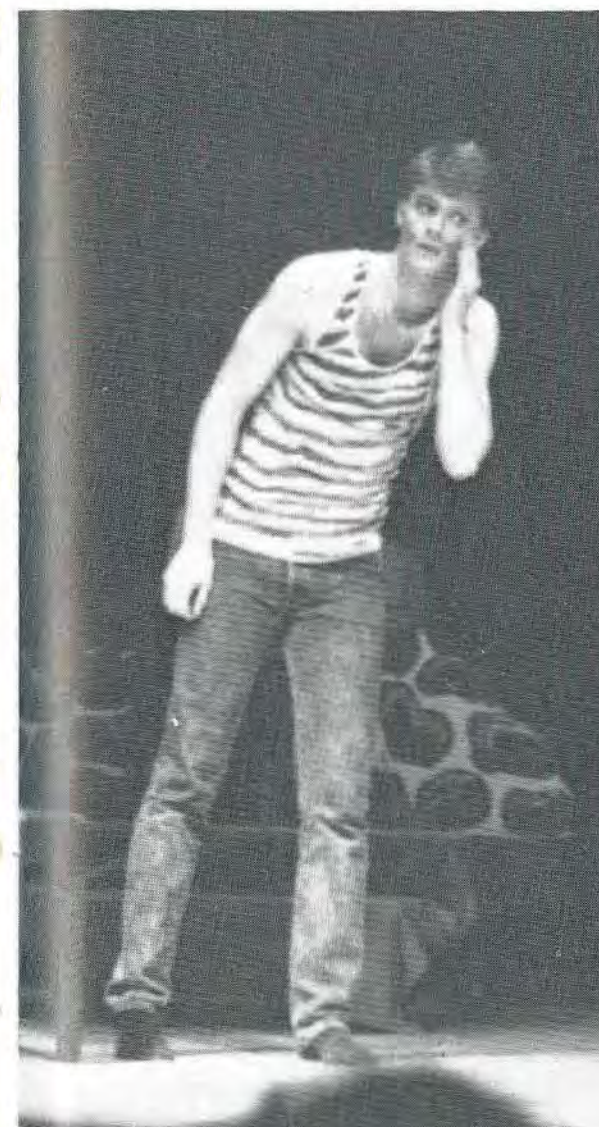

Here we are, about to go on the Limo. By the way everyone was seeing us off, you'd figure that Portuguese airlines have a zero success rate or something.

Here are just a few of the many faces of the characters in the play. CAVE CATS!

The actors- Mrs. Lambert, Tim, Lori, Christy, Karen, Leo, Scott, and Dan.

Look at me
Gaze into my eyes.
What do you see?
I'm a tiger that tells no lies.

Why? Why? I can't understand why!

The Westside Story Tellers Tell All

Who are these cats dressed in black with fuzzy manes, stripes, and spots? Why did they do it?

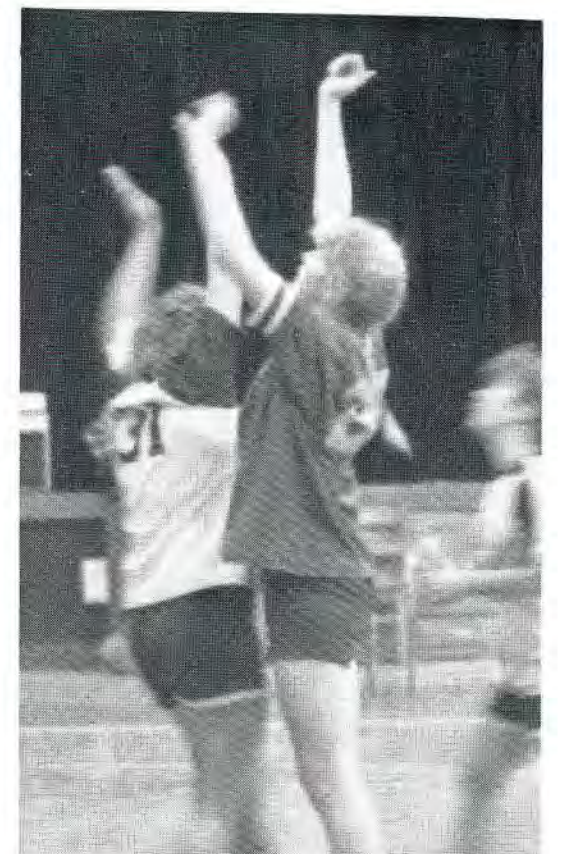

This year's drama troupe awesomely acted out The Cave Cat. Once again the play was directed by Mrs. Laaaambert, the sheepish lion. They worked hard, and after many troubles, they put it all together.

The cast included Dan Burke, who play the heavenly Priest Cat; Tim Perry, who played the tiger Ziggy; Lori Lanfear, who played Zula and the Lion Chick; Christy Perry, who played the Leopard Chick and Zelma; Leo Brusio, who played the fatherly Papa; Karen Peterson, who played the motherly Mama; and Scott Simon, who played the Cave Cat.

When it was all over, the cave cat was DEAD!!!! There were good times, hard times, easy times, funny times, and some not so nice times when the Mrs. Lambert thought not knowing the lines was not-so-funny. May we never forget lions, tigers, and bears. Oops, I mean, leopards.

One last word- lemonade ...

The Unashamed, Uninjured, Unsurpassed, Unsuccessful, But Untiring Soccer Team

This year's soccer season got off to a sprinting start in the middle of last summer's heatwave. after four weeks of the unthinkable (The HILL), the boys opened their regular season play at Arlington, which ended in a bitter defeat, WRHS losing 8-0. Although the team was made up largely of freshmen and sophomores, the boys gave many teams in the league a run for their money. Some may say the team was very young and untried, but the guys put alot of heart into improving their skills. When asked what the most memorable moment of the season was, most replied, "When Leo scored for the other team, or when we won our first game." That game came to the end of the season when WRHS hosted the Rochester Rockets. After a double overtime game, WRHS pulled out a 3-2 win over the Rockets and ended a long season at 1-13.

Mike Pawlusiak and his fancy feet.

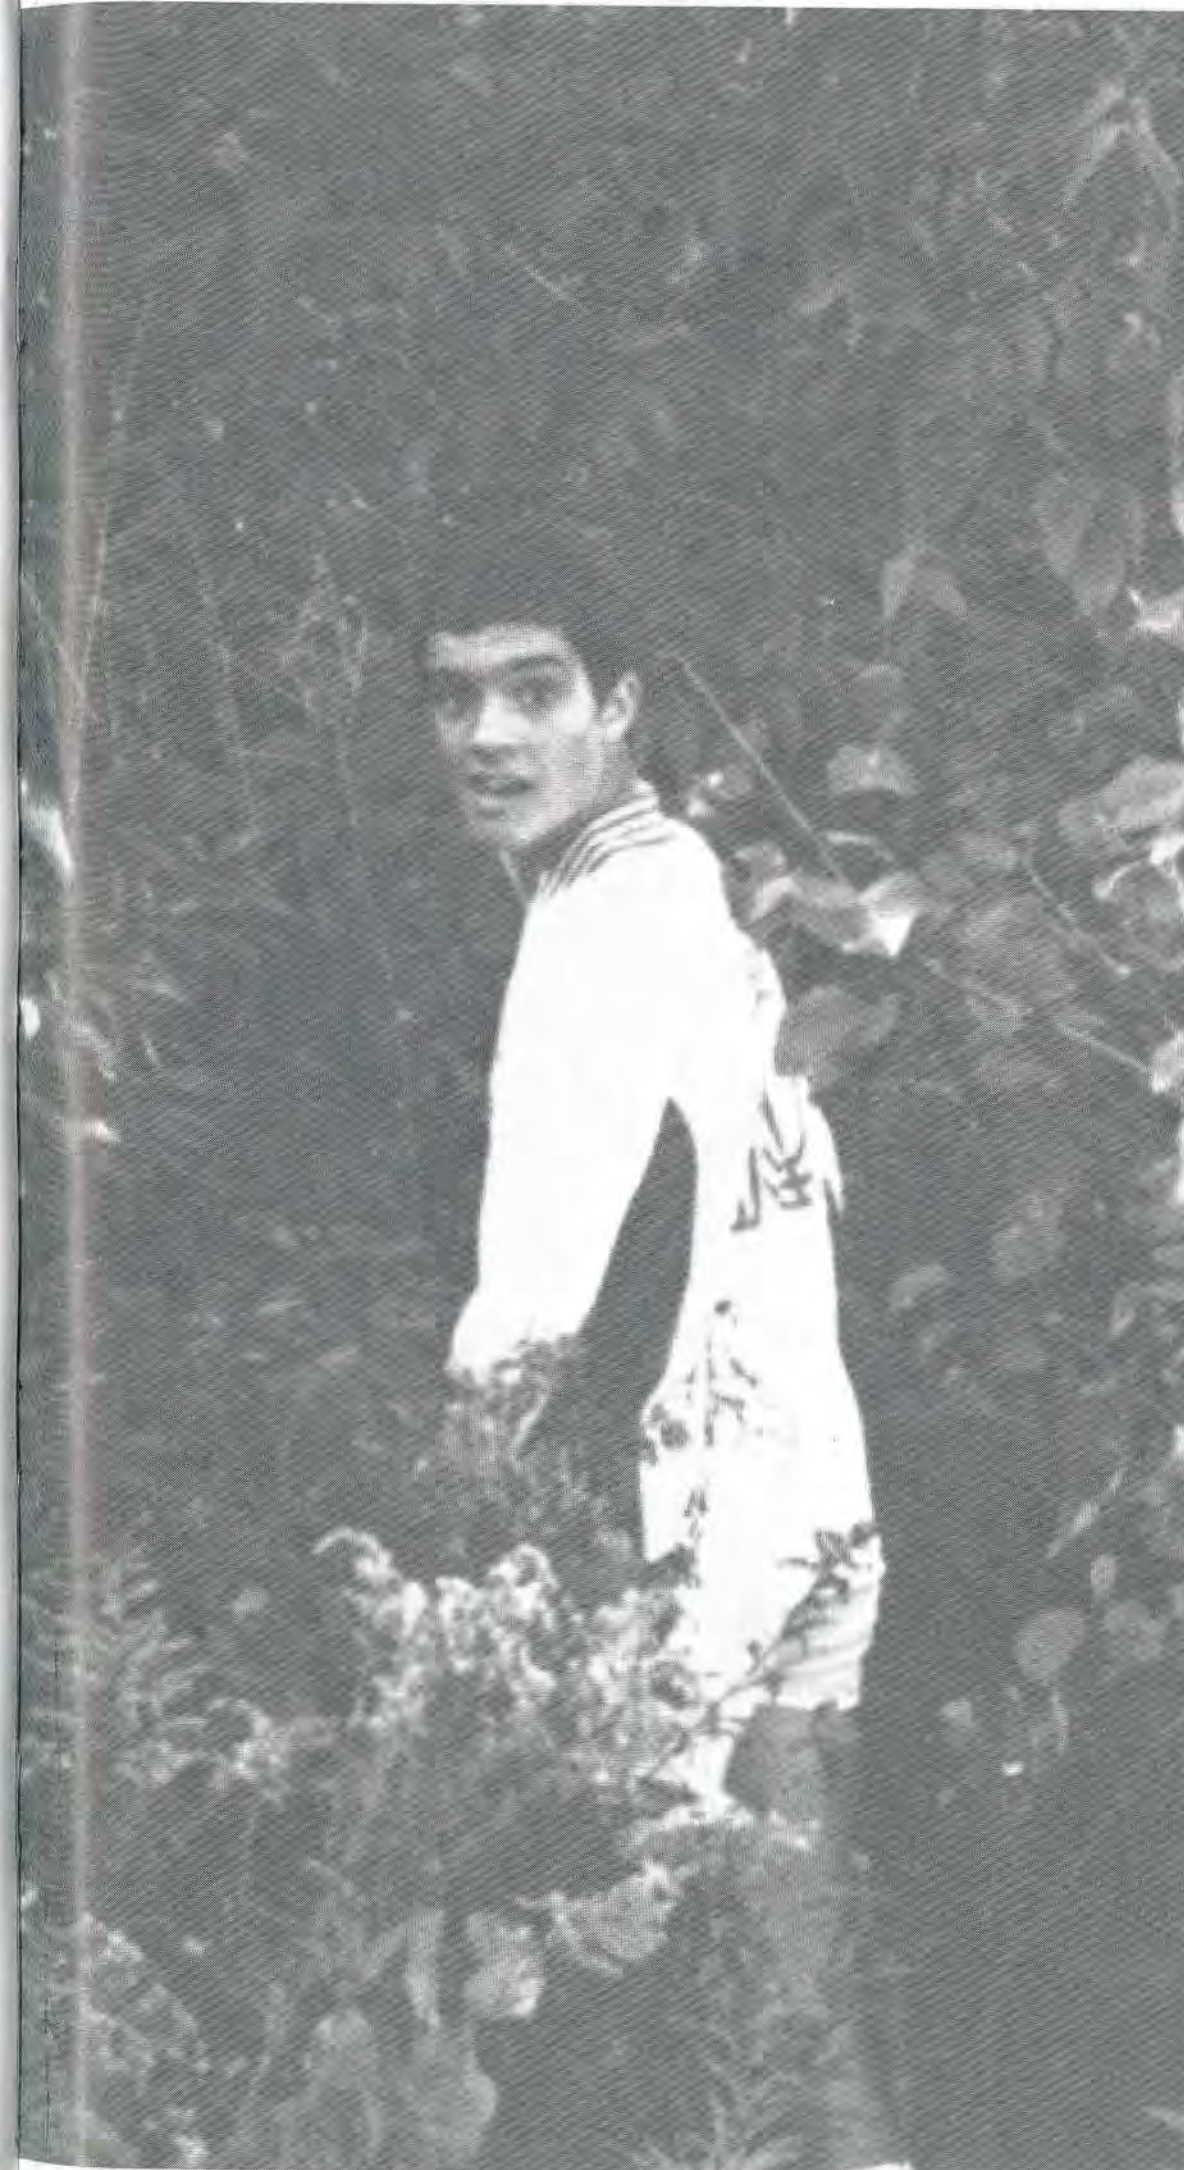

Smiley and his shadow, or was that really another player?

Manager: Karen Peterson Front Row: Jimmy P., Jason S., Tom V., Dennis S., Brian G., Bill W., Jimmy R., Brian B.

Hey, Bill . . . . the game's started! Yes, this IS our very own secret weapon, Bill Weatherby, although at this moment he seems to think there's a fire to be put out.

Mike Sabotka gettin' down and dirty. He won the Fullback of The Year Award.

This is what Beetle does after he gets burned on defense . . . pouts.

Here They Are . . .

"If we can't beat 'em, We will confuse them."

Don't worry, Be happy Kel-
You've got defensive back up.

Pass it to Dawn!

THE UNBELIEVABLE improved 1988 Soccer Team!!

The Unbelievable Girls

Put up your dukes — It's mine.

With these three on the ball, the other team stands still.

This was the second year for girl's soccer at West Rutland. Our goal for the year was to win at least one game. Under the coaching of Mr. Fillioe, we won a game and a scrimmage. The game was against Poultry- we won the game in overtime. It was the most unable to believe high point. The team was made up of two unreplaceable seniors- Kelly Flory and Kelly Moyer, six juniors, who were unstoppable,-Tracey Loseby, Christy Perry, Stephanie Rogers, Laurie Beaulieu, Cathy Von Dette, and Laura Mc Allister, six sophomores- Sara Trepanier, Yvonne Wedin, Karen Harte, Cheri Saltis, Stacey Fales, and Joanne Grabowski, and three freshmen- Dawn Swahn, Johanna Flory, and Molly Loso. Next years team will hopefully win, win, WIN!

And Here Are The Junior Varsity Boys.

Hey Jimmy you're guarding the wrong guy.
Matt's on your team!

This is the Junior Varsity Squad, the cream of the crop.

All around are the guys in action. With ball-handlers like Matt who could lose?

Jimmy skies to the hoop and then misses it and everyone stands around ...

The Varsity Boys Basketball Team-Unbelievable!

Jody decided to turn it into a soccer game!

We decided to not have alot of words here. Let pictures tell the tale. And boy what a TALL tale that was ...

Mike with a Michael Jordan move!

Simon ripping down a rebound!

Jody, one of the team's leading scorers, takes a wild shot.

Jump ball ...

OK guy's just because I'm five feet behind the line doesn't mean it won't go in.

The guys get it together and
Fron with a beauty!

Great Aren't They?

We'll raise our hands. We're sure we'll win (again).

The dancing dolls. Look at them go.

GERONIMO!!!

The prettiest varsity cheerleaders.

Stand Back!! Don't mess with the best!! Even the JV cheerleaders are pretty.

Cheering

This years cheering squads were the best that West Rutland has seen in a long time. If only there were enough uniforms for everyone, they would have all been on the varsity squad. The varsity cheerleaders went both to regionals and to states. They did very well. Next years cheerleaders will be made up of mostly the same people because there was only one senior this year.

Unforgettable — Girl's B-Ball

Hey Cheri, that one isn't that bad . . . What do you think? Yeah, he's O.K., but can he dribble with his left?

Catch the ball Alli, don't shoot at it!!!

Take a few freshman, a share of sophomores, one jolly junior, and four solo seniors, and you have the J.V. and varsity Girl's B-Ball teams of 1988-89. I won't mention our record (2-18), but I will mention the patience of our new coach Liz Cronin, and her ever present side-kick, RICHARD. Despite our record, we did have some great times, and even though winning is a heck of a lot better than losing, who can forget these times? Our first game/first fight, Joy to The world, Coach's uncontrollable short skirts and of course RICHARDS crushes, all kept the season interesting, and fun. The j.v.'s season was full of ups and downs, but with some work, things will be great down the road.

What a followthrough . . Kelly, you can uncross your fingers now.

Now what do I do??????????

Joy to the World . . . . . But this time with her own shorts.

The j.v. team: Bottom (L to R) J. Fenton, S. Bania, J. Flory, J. Spaulding, N. Neimeyer, Top (L to R) R. Cyr, J. Grabowski, A. Koehler, K. Harte, C. Saltis, Coach Stocker

The Varsity Bottom (LtoR): J.Flory, K. Flory, K. Moyer, J. Grabowski, C. Saltis, Top (LtoR) RICHARD, T. Loseby, S. Sturtevant, J. Simon, K. Peterson, K. Harte, Coach Cronin.

Does anyone look like they are listening???

Nice to see you made it, Stacey!

Here they all are, the Varsity boys Baseball team. There's the Suckler, the Heckler, the Worm, the Taz, and of course, Poky! With nicknames like these, who cares how they play.

The JV's on the opposite page are: Sean, Brian, Jim, Jeremy, Ron, Jason, Gomer, Justin, Jarrod, and Coach Tom.

I THINK I GOT IT, wait, Mr. Dempsey, YOU get it !!!!!!!

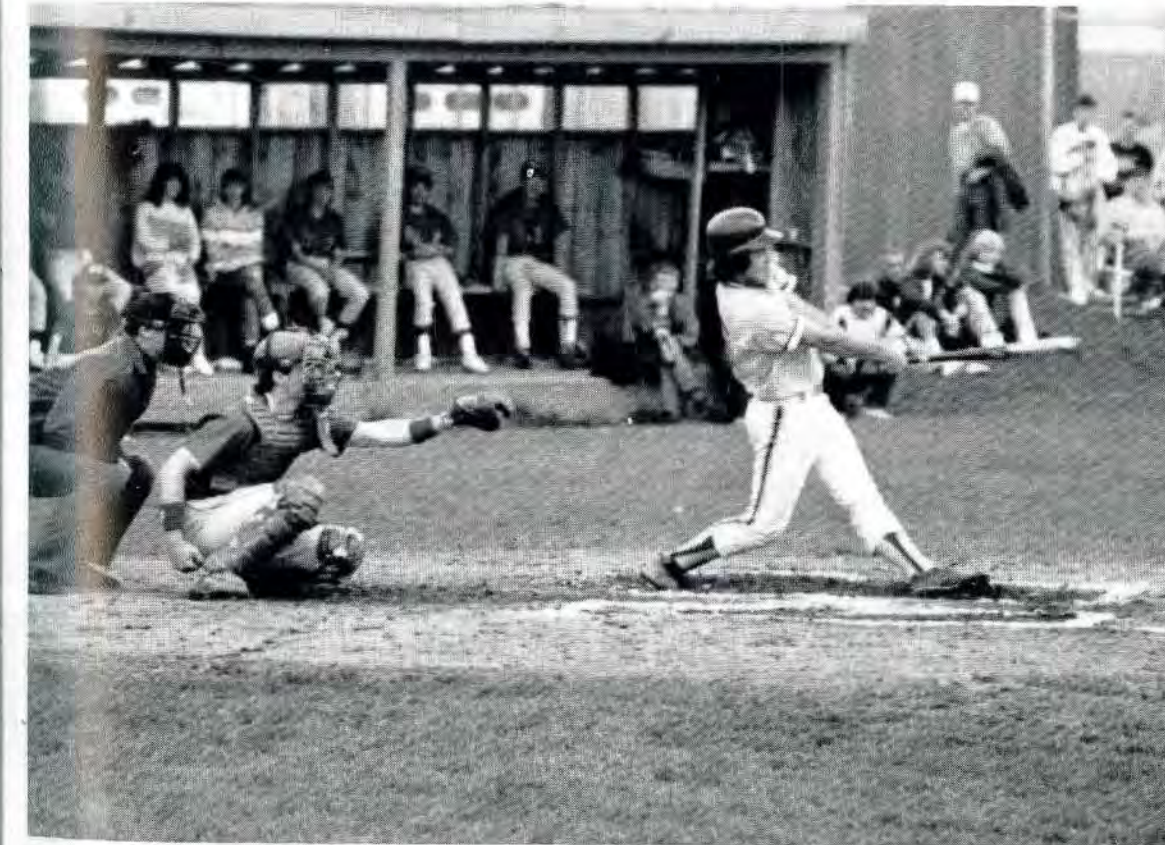

It Was Close!
Very Close!!

But Not Close Enough!!!

The Varsity boys Baseball team had a pretty quiet season compared to previous ones. There were no Proctor houses hit by long shot homers! There were no attacks of jelly donut comments. What there were, though, were plenty of close games, a few major blowouts (PROCTOR), but nevertheless, a lot of good times. Again, this year, the team was coached by the one and only Mickey Caliguri.

Also on the team, were several underclassmen who showed more and more improvement as the days progressed. The season ended with a tough quarter final loss to Green Mountain. Better Luck next year fellas!!!!

Here is the award-winning team catcher, Matt Kramarz!!! (I hate to tell you this Matt, but your swing is a little early)

And the Pro's say:

... Jason has a great future as long as he stays off the mound .. I can't say that ... he has him moments .. but first base is his DOMAIN!!! ... -B. Jackson

... this years Westside team is one of the classiest ever ... If these guys were in the majors, there would never be a dull moment-O. Smith

..... THESE GUYS ARE GREAT!!!! CAN WE C H E E R F O R THEM?????- The Dallas Cowboy Cheerleaders (must be a misprint!!!)

As strange as this may look, they were only trying to get out of CINDY's way.

The profile of a major-leaguer, are any scouts around???

There goes another homerun!!!!

Unsurpassed- Softball

This year's JV and Varsity softball teams weren't award winners, but had a great time trying. Senior Stacy Sturtevant was named to the CVGAL all-star team, due to her versatility, and team leadership. Six seniors were on the varsity squad, and they will be missed next year. The JV's had a progressive year, and that will make all the difference in the years to come. Our thanks go out to Mike and Pat Harte, who put in many hours working with us.

Hey, with talent like this, who needs a glove? She'll just scare the other team away. Good plan!!!!

What an arm!!! Call up the scout.

Do you James Walter take Kelly Jean to be your mock wife?

Here comes the bride, all dressed in white, but is the groom making a break for the door?

Remember the old Batman shows, with the villain the Penguin?

Dum Dum De Dum, Dum Dum De Dum Until Graduation Do Us Part

This is the profile of a proud papa, about to gain an in-law.

On February 14, 1989 the Life Skills class made the most of this romantic day by holding their now annual, mock wedding. Things went very smoothly if you don't count wedding day jitters. Despite many plans for early divorces, all the couples hid their feelings and acted like real newlyweds, in one case, with Mr. and Mrs. Tyminiski, "I Do" was barely said before the honeymoon started. Without the help of Mrs. Maguire and Mr. Remington, the wedding wouldn't have been possible. Many thanks go to them from all the seniors, married, or otherwise.

Heed My Warning ..... Marriage is No Picnic.

As Laurie and Dave, Now husband and wife, watch the sun set, David wonders "Honey, Who is your friend?"

This is all lovely, BUT IS IT OVER YET?????

Unraveled

The word above is the only way to describe this year's 50's & 60's Winter Carnival. A come from behind win by the Freshmen just tells you right there that something must have gone wrong! The events were pretty standard, tug o' war, floor hockey, airbands, theme walls --- What on Earth happened, SENIORS????

Some of the victors, did they have a secret plan??

The middle one's kinda cute, but I think she's a little over dressed.

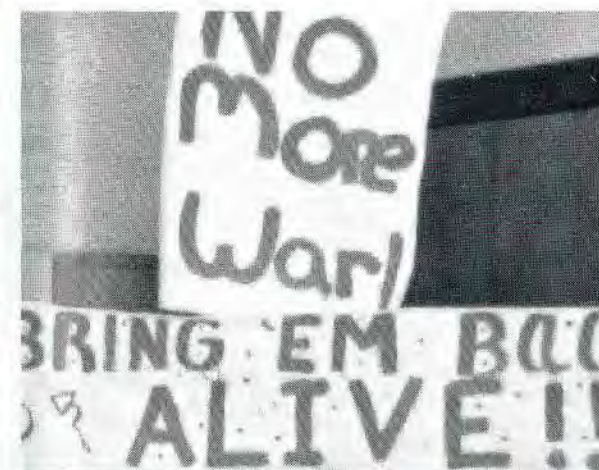

Can't you just hear the sweet melodious tunes coming from this group?

The Juniors pull Hard .....

Hmmmm, this event was full of controversy.

... but the seniors pull HARDER!!!

Kinda makes you wonder if we watch too much t.v. in our spare time.

Quick, hold back the mobs!

I've always said that the juniors were a bunch of monsters.

Tough Floor Hockey Combat.

Unsurpassed Teen Week

April 10-14 marked the first ever teen week at West Ryland. The week's events included an egg-drop contest, a grafitti wall, miniskirt day, a school-wide People's choice awards, and a talent show. The chance to see Dan Pierce jump his BMX over alot of matchbox cars really was a highlight for me. Too bad about the skid mark, Dan. Hopefully, this new idea will take with the teachers, and become an annual thing.

Doesn't the egg have to hatch first?

The Flory twi — oops, I mean sisters.

As the Rookie gets ready to swing, he gets coaching from an old pro.

As the crowd eagerly looks on, Deviant Dan soars above HUNDREDS OF CARS — (matchboxes, that is).

Mark gives a sneak preview for all of his fans.

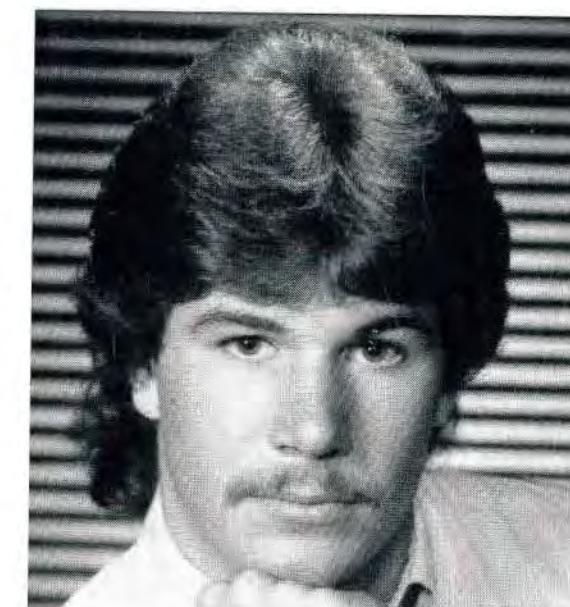

SMILE GIRLS, WANT TO GO TANNING????

Has Barnum and Bailey seen this act yet??

Look guys, Vanna White tryouts are on the next floor!!!

We Couldn't Have Done It Without Them!!!!

Mr. Dan Deuel has been our advisor for three long years. He has had to put up with 34+ problem children, along with his temperamental sidekick, Fred. Without all his support, guidance and friendship, most of our high school days wouldn't have meant as much. To thank Mr. Deuel for all of his hard-work, we, the class of 1989 would like to dedicate our yearbook, the "UN-CLASS" to him.

We also would like to dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Fred Remington. Along with Mr. Deuel, Mr. Remington taught us how to be GREAT Seniors. He still owes the girls a few quarters, but that's OK. What he has given to us is worth alot more than just a few quarters. Thanks, Mr. Remington, for all the grief, all the hassles, and all the good times.

Prom Night

The King and Queen of the 1989 Senior Prom were Dan Pierce and Jennifer Phillips. The court consisted of Mark Jankowski, Kathy Goodrich, Jody Caliguiri, Kelley Flory, Carl Wedin, Naomi Arnado, Tim Mumford, Priscilla Ridlon, Scott Simon, Karen Peterson, Matt Kramarz, and Kelly Moyer.

"Why Can't This Night Go On Forever?"

Everyone enjoyed this Prom. It was far better than ones in the past. As you can see, these two maniacs above let their wild and crazy spirits show through.
